1. We were suddenly sitting in a room with all these people from different countries.

We have chosen a subject and did not know that we experience so much. Maybe some of us chose it only because we had no other choice. We talked about photography and other things in the subject. And then it came to the topic of upcycling and recycling. We knew many other students from other countries that we didn't know and even made contact with some of them. Then we spent many beautiful moments together. But the big question is actually. How did we get involved in the Erasmus project?

2. We were suddenly sitting in a room with all these people from different countries but how did we get there?

When we came to class one day, we started a new topic. Which was Upcycling. We wondered one question after another and our minds filled with thoughts. Our thoughts were like : What is this project about and what are we going to do? We quickly got interested in the Erasmus project. Then our teachers also noticed our interest. So they have chosen us to participate in this project. In the end, we were supported to think up and create our own project.

3. We were suddenly sitting in a room with all these people from different countries.

But how did that come. The Erasmus project was here and I wasn't really convinced and didn't understand it until we ate pizza and danced there together. To get to know more people and culture. It was so funny. Communication does not work 100%. But does it really matter if you don't realise it at some point. And if you miss doing this, everyone is back in their everyday lives. And the only thing you can do is think and talk about it. But what if you can go somewhere else. And you plan so much. You realise that Erasmus is special

4. We were suddenly sitting in a room with all these people from different countries.

Glowing eyes everywhere, the inner restlessness that made everything much more exciting. And then it started. One excursion after another with people you don't even know. Is it so important to have fun with people without knowing them? Different languages that fell into the room, but it doesn't matter. Your mother tongue does not play a role here. Because in the end, only one thing matters: we are all just people with a big heart.
